Let's Grow Together

In the wake of Covid, one thing is certain: we all feel a little differently about community and connection than we did before. Maybe we took it for granted, maybe we discovered it means something different to us than we used to think it did. At any rate, we at thehub are on the lookout for new ways to bring our community together, and find ways we can help each other connect and grow.

Come join us and let's find out what we can do together.

hubhappenings - Can you handle the quiz?

Last week we hosted Alex Chiet, a Sport Development National Consultant with Sport New Zealand for an informative talk about Balance is Better – the governing philosophy behind some recent initiatives at Sport New Zealand to make sure that youth stay healthy in activity when they are young, and that they stay active as they become adults. It was a pleasure to host Alex and we look forward to this being the first of many similar occasions. Watch this space! Exciting announcements coming soon...

At long last, we are hosting our quiz night!

Come along on the evening of June 18th to be bested, bamboozled, and find out who thehub quiz champion is. We invite anyone in thehub community to join us. Eat, drink, surprise yourself with your depth of knowledge or lack thereof – mostly, come get to know some more members of thehub community.

We have been approached by a local health official who has informed us that there is a cohort of kiwis, aged 16-30, who may have missed their measles vaccinations – we are looking at running a vaccine clinic at thehub. If you or your organization are interested in being a part of such a vaccine effort, please get in touch at toituhub.ops@gmail.com

Catering at thehub

We are excited to say we are working in conjunction with our own catering team, as well as Fine Touch Catering to offer a diverse selection of options for people looking to supply food for their functions. Whether it is morning tea, lunch, or a full buffet dinner, look no further than thehub for all of your catering needs. If you want to come see what we have to offer you can stop by thehub on Saturdays and try out our café, breakfast, and lunch selections.

We recently hosted a workshop for an up and coming fire performers to learn how to best capitalize on their unique skill set and turn it in to a living, put on by local fire performer Calypso Jaladeau. Calypso and their partner spent the summer touring New Zealand performing at various festivals, parties and community events. Wellington has a very active Fire and Flow community who train weekly out of Newtown, and are available for performances for anyone looking to add an extra spark to their next event. You can find them at Wellington Firebenders on Facebook if you have any questions.

Come and play Archery Combat at thehub!

Archery combat is a competitive, fast-paced and adrenaline filled activity often described as a cross between dodgeball and archery.

The game offers a unique and exciting experience for new players, and consists of teams battling it out with bows and foam tipped arrows. In Archery combat the only limit on how many arrows you shoot depends on how quickly you can reload - Simply pick-up an arrow off the ground (or catch a flying arrow if you're skilled enough) and shoot it back at your opponents.

Different game scenarios include elimination, capture the flag, points based, and many more. The arena may also include barriers, targets, and other accessories, creating exciting challenges and ensuring no two games are ever the same.

To get involved, visit archery.combat.co.nz, or see a schedule of upcoming games at <https://www.meetup.com/wellington-archery-combat-meetup-group/>
